

World Language Page

Spectrum World Language Department Philosophy Statement

The study of world language helps students develop intellectual connections and pathways for current and future learning through: experiencing the rigorous process of second language acquisition, communication in the target language, and broadening global perspective.

Spectrum World Language Department Goals

Curriculum Resources

Senor Wooley

Martina Bex - Somos